

A CAREER IN Care with HANOVER SCOTLAND

Do you have a genuine passion for helping older people or those who require a little extra support in their daily lives?

We have a range of roles available in your local area based around supporting others to live independent lives.

Who we are

At Hanover Scotland, we provide and manage a wide range of housing and services, mainly for older people or those who require supported living. We have over 5,000 properties throughout Scotland and over 600 employees to deliver the best possible service to our customers. Our core purpose is to help those who need a little extra help to feel safe and secure at home and to live fulfilling and independent lives.

Who we are looking for

We are looking for caring individuals who can provide support to our customers with physical disabilities, mental health issues or learning disabilities, ranging from ages 20s to seniors.

What we offer:

- We are a Living Wage Employer with salaries starting at £12.71 p/h plus overtime
- Ongoing Continuing Professional Development (CPD) and ongoing 'on-the-job' training
- Pension options
- Family-friendly policies
- Plus more benefits, such as an Employee Assistance Programme and Health Plan

Want to find out more?

We can arrange an informal chat with one of our Care Managers to see if we have the job that's right for you. Contact us on recruit@hanover.scotland and let us know which region you'd be interested in.

Current vacancies

Check out our current vacancies on our website at www.hanover.scot/work-with-us/ and to find out more about our company values.

